

“And there are the member of the bands that were ready armed for war, and came to David to Hebron, to turn the King of Saul to him, according to the word of the LORD.” 1 Chronicles 12:23

We are at possibly the most exciting moments of history, for we are living in the time what may see the return of Jesus Christ to the earth! “The Kingdoms of this world are become the Kingdom of our Lord and of His Christ, and He shall reign forever and ever.” (Revelation 11: 5)

It is only logical and fitting then that the believers of this hour, those who will go up the see David’s Greater Son, be of any less of character or gifted than those who went up to make David king? No! For in this hour the Spirit is raising up believers like unto the Sons of Isachaar, “men who had understanding of the times, and knew what Israel (or today’s Church) ought to do.” (1Chronicles 12:32) Of the tribe of Zebulan the scriptures tell us “they were not of a double heart.” (Verse 33) Singleness of vision and purpose is a critical trait of the overcoming and victorious Church in these final moments of history! “A double minded man is unstable in all his ways.” (James 1:8)

Two other traits that are crucial and must be found in this the final generation in history – the ability to keep rank and the quality of being able to maintain a pure heart in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation. (1 Chronicles 12:38) In these times rebellion and defiled hearts litter the lives of millions, and the Church is not exempt. The ability to guard our hearts (Proverbs 4:23) from the vileness of the hour while at the same time yielding our heart “as men under authority: may be the determining factors in our being numbered with the last generation of overcomers.
