Revival

“And he put the wood in order and cut the bullock in pieces, and laid it on the wood, and said, “Fill four barrels of water and pour it on the sacrifice and on the wood.” And he said, “do it a second time... and a third time”... and the water ran around the altar; and he had the trench filled with water as well.” 1 King 18:33-35

How badly do you want revival? What price are you willing to personally pay to see revival in your life – among your family – within your church or city? Revival will always come at great personal cost.

An accurate portrait of much of today’s church is this, “Buildings full of empty people!”

Men may gather great crowds. Entertainment or personalities may be used to attract attention. Various devices may be employed to “win” hearts, but at what price? Hollywood or Las Vegas most surely draw crowds! Pour water all over your ideas. Drench the gimmicks and the entertainments with water. Rid yourself of all human understanding and conventional thinking. Allow God to be God. Look beyond men’s ways and men’s endeavors and see the Christ who loves all mankind, Who has paid the price for mankind’s redemption! Jesus has the plan that will draw a crowd and change the forever the lives of those who come to meet Him!

Are you willing to abandon yourself to the Lord’s way or will your insecurities hold you to the crowds of empty people? “Lord, pour Your water on my life that the fire may be of You, and not of my own works! To God be the glory!”
