Sustaining Personal Revival

“And the Lord said to him, “Go... anoint Hazael to be king of Syria... and Jehu to be king over Israel. And Elisha to be prophet in your place...” 1 King 19:15-17

Fresh vision – birthed by the Spirit and not by man’s imagination – always fuels personal revival. Man was created to respond to the voice of God, His call not only being the direction, but the power to accomplish His will. As you hear the voice of the Spirit weariness and disappointments fade, old struggles and failures grow dim like a dream by mid morning, and new energy and enthusiasm is infused from God’s Spirit to your spirit and then throughout your soul and body.

Peter, hearing the command of faith from the Master, walked, not so much on the water, but on that one word from Jesus – “Come!”

Your own personal spiritual renewal and revival is dependant upon your hearing the voice of the Lord. New vision, new purpose, new marching orders will release a new spiritual awakening and sustain the one already being walked out.

“Be Thou my vision, O Lord of my heart;
Naught be all else to me save that Thou art,
Thou my best thought, by day or by night,
Waking or sleeping, Thy Presence my light.”

Text from the book of poems Gael / Traditional Irish Melody
