1 Kings 20:28

“... I will deliver this great multitude into your hand, and you shall know that I am the LORD.” 1 Kings 20:28

Let's change our focus and adjust our eyes of faith for just moment, shall we? Everyone has needs and everyone has fears or things from which they need deliverance. Whether personal habits or physical sickness or infirmity, relationships that need mending to emotional or financial distress, it is the Lord Who is able to deliver us from their hands! How easy is it for us to become so focused upon our problem areas that we forget one thing – our problems are opportunities for the Lord to be known to us and to make Himself known to all of those who are watching us while we are in the middle of this current difficulty. “Not unto us, O Lord, not unto us, but unto Your name give glory, for Your mercy, and for Your truth's sake.” (Psalm 115:1)

May we never forget that all that is going on within our lives can bring glory to Jesus Christ and can bear witness to His redemptive act at Calvary. Yes, your personal struggles and trials are very much real and painful. But as we reset our focus from the largeness of our predicament to the glory Jesus and our Father will receive from our response of trust and faith while in the midst of these temptations and trials, what will emerge from the overwhelming despondency and discouragement is a God Who towers over all of life and rules even over the valleys of death and problems!

“Lift up your eyes...” for “I will deliver this great multitude into your hands and you shall know that I am the LORD!”
