1 Samuel 14:6

“And Jonathan said to the young man who bore his armour, “Come, and let us go over to the garrison of these uncircumcised (read – men without a covenant); it may be that the LORD will work for us; for there is no restraint to the LORD to save by many or by few.” 1 Samuel 14:6

A man with a covenant is never at the mercy of a man without a covenant! A man with a promise from the LROD is never at the mercy of circumstances. One man in covenant with God can well face a company of uncircumcised (read – men without a covenant)! (Romans 8:31) Whether facing life or death, we are triumphant because of Christ’s covenant with us. “Nat, in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him that loved us!” (Romans 8:37).

Yes, situations may arise that appear to be overwhelming for us. Health, financial, or personal crisis may loom largely before us, but it is at this moment we must look, not at the clouds that surround us but, at the One who triumphed at Calvary to bring us who believe in Him into a New Covenant with His Father!

Jonathan’s boldness will be realized in our lives, when we too possess a revelation that our covenant in Christ will always give us an edge! “But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our LORD Jesus Christ.” (1 Corinthians 15:57).
