1 Samuel 16:11

“And Samuel said to Jesse, “Are all your children here?” And he said, “There remains yet the youngest.” 1 Samuel 16:11

By all appearances you’ve missed the LORD! Every “leading” seems to have been pointless, every “word” without significant confirmation. Your own confidence may be shaken, and other people have started to look at you as a failure, yet...there is a knowing in your heart! A deep-seated assurance – that while you may not know how God will act, you have the inner witness that He will act!

Herein lays the true spirit of the prophetic gifting. When natural laws or circumstances run their course, when others, even godly men, cannot see the how, this gifting comes to the forefront and a way is seen!

The world today is awaiting the people of God to stand up in this hour and manifest this clarity of direction and purpose – to see where others cannot see and to hear the sound others are not hearing. “For the earnest expectation of the creation waits for the manifestation of the sons of God.” (Romans 8:19)

Samuel’s confidence in God is justified. Jesse did have another son. The Lord’s leading was right. David is the new anointed king! If you’ve heard the voice of the Spirit – don’t allow the present’s temporal appearances fool you. Hold fast to the word of the LORD!
