1 Samuel 17:38-39

“And Saul armed David with his armour... and David attempted to go... And David said to Saul, “I cannot go with these; for I have not tested them. And David put them off.”

1 Samuel 17:38-39

The Lord graces every person uniquely – and that gracing is specific for your life and the situations you face. “My grace is sufficient for you; for My strength is made perfect in weakness.” (2 Corinthians 12:9).

Life has many traps. We face these traps every day. A most subtle of traps is that of trying to bear a burden that we have not been graced to carry! How easily we can become offended for a friend as we watch the injustice they face. Be careful! God has graced them for their circumstances – you have not been so graced. You have grace to face your situations. To try and carry another’s burden without their grace will inevitably cause you to stumble. When we have taken a burden that we are not equipped to carry, the resultant offences endanger those who had grace for the situation. Be ware, lest your offense cause another to fall from their security of grace.

As you stand in your unique grace, watch how God uses you to bless all those with whom He causes you to come in contact.
