1 Samuel 21:10-15

“And David arose, and fled that day for fear of Saul... and David was very much afraid of Achish, the king of Gath. And he changed his behavior and feigned himself mad...” 1 Samuel 21:10-15

The fear of man causes us to be what we are not, to impress people that do not matter! It is a horrible thing this fear of man. It causes you to run one way only to haunt you and force you to run another direction. Choices you made yesterday now seem wrong and you are forced to yet again make a new set of decisions for today!

At all cost drive out the fear of man from your life. Don't yield yourself to it, but rather trust the love of God to keep you and sustain you. “There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear, because fear has torment. He that fears is not made perfect in love. (1 John 4:18)

To walk in the love of God will completely release you from the torments of fear. To find rest in the love of God will deliver you from the constant striving to please others. “So we may boldly say, ‘the LORD is my Helper, and I will not fear what man shall do to me.’” (Hebrews 13:6)
