2 Chronicles 9:3-6

“And when the Queen of Sheba had seen the wisdom of Solomon, the house he had built... there was no more spirit left in her... the she said to the King, “it was a true report... however... you exceed the fame of which I heard.” 2 Chronicles 9:3-6

What report do people have concerning your life? Do you meet or exceed their expectations? What sort of “taste” do you leave in people’s mouths? Do they want to see you again or is spending time with you laborious?

Without question, Christians often receive a bad rap from the world merely because we are living compasses and reminders to a generation that has long since seared their moral conscience. On the other hand, and again without question, many Christians have been an embarrassment to the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Self-righteous attitudes, immorality, greed, and arrogance muddy and pollute the waters. When we then offer the lost soul a drink from the well of Salvation, they refuse because of the pollution they see in our lives. Do you blame them?

The people of the world are looking for overcomers! They are waiting for the sons of God to arise and behave like the children of God. “For we know that the whole creation groans and travails in pain... awaiting the manifestation of the sons of God.” (Romans 8:19, 22)

Friends, the world is looking, hoping, longing for God’s children to stand up and deliver the goods! Let’s not disappoint them? Neither let us disappoint our heavenly Father.
