

Before the THRONE

The Devotional

Volume 1

Books of the Law & History

2 Chronicles 18:7-13

“And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, “There is yet one man, by whom we may inquire of the LORD, but I hate him,; for he never prophesies good to me, but always evil and his name is Micaiah... and Micaiah said, “As the LORD lives, even what my God say, that will I speak.” 2 Chronicles 18:7,13

A heart that is set on rebellion will always find the word of the LORD agitating and the bearer of the Word unwelcome. “Let the righteous smite me; if shall be a kindness. And let him reprove me, it shall be excellent oil...” (Psalm 141:5) Are you teachable or are you a rebel at heart?

There is a heart cry from the living Church that the Spirit would once again bring forth gifts like that of the prophet Micaiah! Men and women of integrity, young people of purity, people wholly God’s so that He can be wholly theirs!

The fear of man must be purged completely. You must know before Whom you stand. The glory of kings and presidents pales before the word of the LORD. Hearing the voice of the Master not only brings faith, but it produces an awesome fear of God which in turn produces an atmosphere of willing and reverent obedience – in spite of the possible consequences!

“For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard.” (Acts 4:20) What is it that you have been seeing and hearing lately?

Before the THRONE is a registered trade mark of and published by Inner Court Ministries, Inc. P.O. Box 2125, Longmont, Colorado, 80502-2125 USA. All rights reserved, contents may be quoted or reprinted, provided excerpts are in context. © 2005 and © 2006 by Inner Court Ministries, Inc. and Mark D. Spencer For additional information see us at www.feargod.com or at www.innercourt.com