2 Chronicles 20:20

“Believe the LORD your God, so shall you be established; believe His prophets, so shall you prosper.” 2 Chronicles 20:20

Modern scientific thought holds that matters of the heart – specifically belief in God – invalidate any reasoning that may issue from those beliefs. Yet that same school of thinking will abandon their own scientific method (initially established by Christian scientists), to “prove” a theory that in light of hard evidence is weak at best and untenable through and through. Call it faith in science – so called!

Since the Lord has established all truth – for God Himself is Truth – doesn’t it make sense to begin any premise upon the foundation of His truth and wisdom? To build otherwise, no matter how appealing to the mind of men or acceptable to the current fashionable theories, is to build upon shifting sand. (Matthew 7:24-27) “I am the way, the truth, the life...” (John 14:6) Those who choose the foundation of God’s making will ultimately be found having made the wisest of all choices!

Has compromise entered your life? Does basing the decision of life upon God’s word seem foreign to you, or worse, naïve? Are there hidden secrets of your heart that whisper the subtle lies of man’s superiority over God’s eternal word? It all comes down to a simple choice of the heart. Will you obey God and His word, or will you insist on following your own wisdom and understanding?

“The way of a fool is right in his own eyes, but he that hearkens to counsel is wise.” (Proverb 12:15)
