2 Chronicles 21:7

“Jehoram... did evil in the eyes of the LORD. Nevertheless, the LORD would not destroy the house of David, because of the covenant that He had made with David, as He had promised to give a light to him and to his sons forever.” 2 Chronicles 21:7

Covenant is a powerful thing. It transcends our failings and undergirds our confidence. Because of a promise made to David the LORD would not destroy his house – no matter how wicked David’s descendants had become. And what is that sin in your life that you allow to continually lie in your spiritual ear saying, “How could the LORD love someone like you?”

“There is therefore, no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus.” (Romans 8:1)

Son, don’t allow small things to interfere or rob you of your confidence in God. His covenant with you stands secure in Jesus Christ. God the Father’s every promise to you is not primarily to you, but to His own Son – the LORD Jesus Christ – and in that you can rest securely! “For all the promises of God in Jesus are yes, and in Him Amen, unto the glory of God by us.” (2Corinthians 1:20) Being found in Christ releases you to the full provision and blessing that God would grant to His own Son – by Whom you are now counted as a son – worthy in Christ of every spiritual blessing. (Ephesians 1:3) Yes, the “sure mercies of David” promised to Jesus are now rightfully yours! (Acts 13:33-34)

“And because you Gentiles have become His children, God has sent the Spirit of His Son into your hearts, and now you can call God your dear Father. Now you are no longer a slave but God's own child. And since you are His child, everything He has belongs to you.” Galatians 4:6-7 NLT
