2 Kings 2:2,4,6

“No way! As the LORD lives, and as you live, I will not leave you!” 2 Kings 2:2, 4, 6
(author’s paraphrase)

There is a clarion call today by the Spirit of the Living God for believers who will tenaciously cling to and hold fast to the life found only in Jesus! As the world begins to feel the shakings of the fast approaching new heaven and earth, only Jesus will remain constant! (Hebrews 13:8) The world is longing for the genuine article! They are skeptical and rightly so, of more of the same – pious words with no life force, no radical difference in living, no genuine hope offered. The people of the world are facing greater obstacles than ever before and they have no answers in themselves or from their leaders. They are running out of time yet the longing to know the Truth is ever increasing. Is it possible that they too can become acquainted with the God of Life?

Before the peoples of the world can see such a manifestation of the Spirit of God, the Church must arise in power and purity, clothed in the Presence of her Lord!

Elisha has seen Elijah’s manner of life and the reality of the Living God’s power in and through Him. He purposed then, before both Yahweh and the prophet. “I will not leave you.” He was saying “I have watched you and I desire my life to be lived at the same level and not only that, but I desire to “climb upon your shoulders” and go even further into this life of God than you have – I want double!”

Are you satisfied with your Christian experience? Satisfied with your routines of daily living? Satisfied with prayer that seems one sided – Bible reading that more often than not is dry and seems to have no personal relevance? Fasten your eyes once again upon the Lord Jesus. Determine deep within your being, “as the LORD lives, I will not leave you!”
