2 Kings 7:1

“Then Elisha said, “Hear the word of the LORD; tomorrow about this time in the gate of Samaria, shall a measure of fine flour be sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel.” 2 Kings 7:1

Tomorrow. For most people, their tomorrows are things made of hopes and dreams. So unfortunately, most people’s tomorrows can be translated as unfulfilled wishes and longings that will never see the “light of day.” For the Christian, we have a hope that transcends a more natural hope... We have a hope that can build a platform from which faith can reach into the eternal and spiritual realm and realize tomorrow’s hope today! “Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.” (Hebrews 11:1)

And how do we find such a hope from which faith can be activated? But of course, it is the word of the LORD from which both hope springs and faith launches out! “Hear the word of the LORD.” There are no guarantees apart from the unfailing word of God. “But the word of the LORD endures forever.” (1 Peter 1:25)

Don’t give up a day early! For those who have built their lives upon the word of God, hear now the word of the LORD, “Your tomorrow will come!” And for those who have been wishing and longing for something but are uncertain if it will come to pass or not, it is not too late to begin building God’s word into your life and heart.

“Tomorrow about this time!”
