

“A lion has roared! Who will not fear? The Lord GOD has spoken! Who can but prophesy?!” Amos 3:8

It issues from deep inside the human heart. Fear creates its own reaction as does the hearing of the Spirit of God’s voice. Fear paralyzes while the voice of God stirs to action. As fear seeks to sap courage, so hearing the voice of God instills courage. “The righteous are as bold as a lion, but the wicked flee when no man pursues.” (Proverbs 28:1).

“...His Word was in my heart like a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I was weary with holding back, and I could not refrain any longer.” (Jeremiah 20:9). The anointing of God – or unction as older translations say – is like putting your finger into an electric outlet. It is a tangibleness of the power and presence of God. And when a person gets “hooked up” there is often a physical response to that Power Source!

Don’t speak on your own – wait for His Word to come. Don’t minister in your own strength – wait for Another One to arrive Who has the goods! (John 5:19 – 21; 8:28.)

“Lord GOD, help me today to speak only what I hear You saying; to minister to others as only You are ministering!”

“...As my Father hath sent Me, even so send I you.” (John 20:21).
