

“For, lo, He that farms the mountains, and creates the wind, and declares unto man what is his thought, who makes the morning darkness, and treads upon the high places of the earth, the LORD, the God of Hosts, is His name.” Amos 4:13

Modern sophistication has caused us to over look the wonder of our own creation. We see the vastness of the universe and ignore the intricacies of its workings. In so doing, science has betrayed its Biblical and Christian roots and now demands a blind faith to human design and ingenuity.

“It is the glory of God to conceal a thing, but the honour of kings is to search out a matter.” (Proverbs 25:2)

And in the wonder of this creation we see that behind it all is the LORD – the God of Hosts. And yet the believing one sees even more – he sees this mighty Creator as also His Redeemer and Friend, his Saviour and Father.

“Lord, today, I wonder at Your creation! I glory that You are my Father. I am humbled that You have forgiven my sin. Show me, teach me the hidden wonders of Your creation! Thank You.”
