

“Thus... the Lord GOD showed me. ...locust swarms... then I said, “O Lord GOD, forgive I pray!” ... so the LORD relented concerning this,. “It shall not be,” said the LORD. Then the Lord GOD showed me... conflicting fire... then I said, “O, Lord GOD, cease I pray!” ... So the LORD relented concerning this. “This also shall not be,” said the Lord GOD.” Amos 7:1 – 6

Good news! The Lord can be persuaded to delay or withhold His judgments. Never underestimate the power or the importance of your intercession on behalf of your family – or your nation!

What if... what if your prayer averts destruction? What if it is your intercession that releases a family from the bondages of generational curses and sets them on a course of generational blessings found in Christ?

Abraham’s intercession delivered his nephew, Lot. Moses stood between God’s judgment and Israel’s destruction. Amos prayed and the LORD heard his cry as well.

And what of your prayers? Specifically, for whom are you willing to intercede? Base your prayer on God’s Word and His merciful character. Listen listening to His Voice and then ask “big” and ask “bold”!

“God Who is rich in mercy...” (Ephesians 2:4).
