

“I was no prophet, nor was I a son of a prophet, but I was a shepherd and a tender of sycamore fruit, then the LORD took me as I followed the flock, and the LORD said to me, “Go, prophesy to My people...” Amos 7:14 – 15

The anointing of God for ministry is not an inherited commodity. It, like all Kingdom resources, is obtained by two seemingly opposing truths – the choice of God and the faith of the believer, which by the way, is also a gift of God. (Ephesians 2:8 – 10).

Amos was busy with his secular job when the LORD, “tracked him down” and called him to the prophet’s ministry. The Lord has your number, too. He is watching. He knows if you are faithful in your duties at home, at work, in church. “He that is faithful in that which is the least is also faithful in the much and he that is just in the least will be unjust also in the much. If, therefore, you have not been faithful with unrighteous money, who will commit to you true riches?” (Luke 16:10 – 11).

Walk with the Lord in the little things.

Strive to be faithful in the little... and remain poised listening for the voice of God.”

“Before the THRONE” and “Before the THRONE – The Devotional” are registered trademarks of and published by Spencers Unleashed, Inc. All rights reserved, contents may be quoted or reprinted, provided excerpts are in context.

© 2005 and © 2006 by Mark D. Spencer and Spencers Unleashed, Inc. For additional information see us at www.spencersunleashed.com or at www.innercourt.com or at www.feargod.com