

Before the THRONE The Devotional

Volume 3

The Prophetic Books

Daniel 6:3, 4, 5

“Then Daniel distinguished himself above the various governors... because an excellent spirit was in him; and the king sought to set him over the whole realm.” Daniel 6:3

When Christ, by His Spirit, indwells you it should make a noticeable difference to all those around you... in the home or on the job, a Christian should be different.

Are you?

“So the various governors sought to find some charge against Daniel concerning the kingdom; but they could find no charge or fault, because he was faithful, nor was there any error or fault found in him.” Daniel 6:4

Faithfulness is critically important. It will actually shield the servant of God from many troubles. Are you a faithful person?

“Then these men said, “We shall not find any charge against this Daniel unless we find it against him concerning the law of his God. (Daniel 6:5).

It was this same jealousy that drove the high priest and the Pharisees to place Jesus on trial – a kangaroo court complete with false witnesses and trumped up charges. Your righteous and godly life will shield you from many troubles, but it may also produce a conviction and hatred in others that will burst forth in persecution.

Now the real test begins – are you serving God for His benefits or out of genuine devotion to Jesus?

“Yea, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution.” (2 Timothy 3:12).
