Daniel 6:28

“So this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius and in the reign of Cyrus the Persian.”
Daniel 6:28

From his teenage years onward Daniel stood firm in his faithful service to the Lord. For over sixty years he served four different kings and impacted their lives, and thus their kingdoms. But the scope of his life and ministry far exceeds the Babylonian kings. By his skill, his faithfulness and his trust in Yahweh, Daniel’s ministry had international and intergenerational impact and he is still impacting the course and destiny of today’s nations!

Daniel’s ministry began as a teenager and remained fresh and effective all the years of his life because he continually cultivated and nurtured his walk with the Lord.

Longevity and relevance in life and ministry always issues forth from our being connected to the Eternal. The I Am that I Am – who is always in touch with the “now” of people’s thoughts, business trends and the swaying of politicians! To walk in the Spirit is to always have “insider” information!

Such continual success as Daniel’s also speaks clearly to his ability to change with the changing times. Daniel’s core beliefs didn’t change as one king lost power or faded from the scene – so unlike today’s politicians who often will not buy a suit of clothes or have their hair done until they have allowed a focus group to be polled!

“Father, help me to flow with You and thus be relevant to my times! Free me from the safety of unwillingness to change and the fear of new things. May my bearing on Jesus Christ allow me to change habits and methods without compromising my faith or His message! Alleluia!”
