Daniel 10:12

“...and I have come because of your words...” Daniel 10:12

Should an angel come for our words, what would they hear?

Would they hear gossip?

What about harsh or angry words?

Maybe they would hear foul language or off colour jokes?

Your angels would, of course, never hear words of bigotry or bias, would they?

Could it be that your words of unbelief actually paralyze the very angel that God has sent to help and bless your life?

“Then those who fear the Lord spoke to one another, and the LORD listened and heard them; so a book of remembrance was written before Him for those who fear the LORD and who meditate upon His name!” (Malachi 3:16).

Our tongues hold the power of death and life! (Proverbs 18:21). Our words activate the ministry of angels – or our words render their ministry on our behalf useless and ineffective. “Bless the Lord, you His angels who excel in strength, who do His Word, heeding the voice of His Word.” (Psalm 103:20). When God’s Word is in our hearts and in our mouths, the angelic host assigned to our care are dynamic in their working! Those believers whose words are empty and self opinionated words offer little help or direction to which angels can respond.

Supernatural help manifests itself on the behalf of those who speak what God has spoken.

“Therefore, holy brethren, partakers of a heavenly calling, consider Jesus, the Apostle and High Priest of our confession.” (Hebrews 3:1 NASB). Unless we align our confession with the will of heaven could it be that we frustrate the High Priestly ministry of Jesus? Derek Prince was fond of saying, “No confession, no High Priest.”
