Daniel 11:32

“...But the people who know their God shall be strong and do exploits.” Daniel 11:32

As we face with increasing intensity the birth pains of the Ending Days, we must be aware that this is our time! “We have come to the Kingdom for such a time as this.” (Ester 4:14). To face these days then in victory, we are given a simple key that will produce incredible results. “The people that know their God...” This is the highest of all callings – to know God. (John 17:3). This was the apostle’s highest goal. (Philippians 3:10). From this experiential knowing of God we discover our place, we see our destiny, and we finally may rest satisfied and at peace!

It is in the personal knowing of Christ Who strengthens us that we may now face these Ending Days without fear or troubledness of heart! Abraham grasped this truth and at a hundred years of age, with his wife of ninety – bears the son of promise – Isaac! “He did not waiver at the promise of God through unbelief, but was strengthened in faith, giving glory to God.” (Romans 4:20).

“My son, it is in knowing God personally and intimately that produces genuine faith of heart – faith that overcomes the world, faith that moves mountains, faith that changes circumstances. (1 John 5:4 – 5; Mark 11:23). And it is this same faith that will enable you to act and do exploits in His name!”

“My prayer Lord is that I may know You more fully. I thank You for the God-kind-of-faith that comes from that personal relationship with You!” (Mark 11:22; Ephesians 2:8 – 9). And it is that same faith that will also enable me to carry out exploits in Your name!”
