The Prophetic Books

Ezekiel 3:17

“Son of man, I have made you a watchman... therefore hear the word at My mouth, and give them warning from Me.” Ezekiel 3:17

Should a watchman fall asleep on his watch he endangers all those who have been entrusted to his safekeeping. It is a solemn responsibility this keeping watch! Lives are at stake and destinies altered if diligence is not exercised by the sentinel.

In the military it is an unforgivable violation to fall asleep while on watch! What then of the watchfulness of the Spirit’s appointment?

Son, understand this clearly – natural battles, whether between armies or between family members, is first a spiritual struggle and must be won in the heavenlies if conditions in the natural are to be altered. “For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against... spiritual wickedness in high places.” (Ephesians 6:12; Daniel 10).

Those outside of God’s redeeming grace face an unspeakable future. Whatever sphere of influence then to which you have been called, it is vitally important for you to “speak the things which you have seen and heard.” (Acts 4:20).

“Lord God, You Who never sleep or slumber, enable me, in my Spirit assigned watch, to be ever faithful.”
