Ezekiel 28:14

“You were the anointed cherub who covers...” Ezekiel 28:14

The fall of Lucifer from the heights of Heaven’s service to the depths of selfish and arrogant pride serves us both with warning and wonder. How can someone so close to the majesty of the very throne of God cast away all personal restraint and morality to morph into such a hideous and depraved being? And what of this creature so amazing in beauty, wisdom, and ability – why exchange it all for eternal damnation, loss, and banishment?

“My son, remember this simple truth, “the safest place is the lowest place!” I speak not of some self-deprecating false humility but of a true meekness of heart that is genuinely grateful for all the Lord has done – beginning with revealing of His great love for you by the sending of His Son to die in your stead! “Rejoice not that the demons are subject to you; but rather rejoice, because your name is written in heaven.” (Luke 10:20).

No matter how high you advance in business or profession; no matter how well known among men your name may become; no matter how well you provide for your family – stay low! All that you achieve in life you owe to the gracious mercy and kindness of Your Heavenly Father. Such is the favour of God!

If left to your choice, always choose the seat at the back. (Luke 14:7 – 11).

“The safest place is the lowest place.”
