

Before the THRONE The Devotional

Volume 3

The Prophetic Books

Ezekiel 43:4 – 5

“And the glory of the LORD came into the house by the way of the gate whose prospect is toward the east. So the Spirit took me up, and brought me into the inner court, and behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house.” Ezekiel 43:4 – 5

Life is all about perspective isn't it? While the majority complains and murmur about the poor economy or how they have been cheated, someone is out there in the same economy making a fortune! Same economy, same twenty-four hours in a day! Selah!

Is your propensity to the negative? Maybe you look for the good in life? Whatever, it is important to always gain the Spirit's perspective. The negative man can only see what he can't do and the positive man, taking what is in his hand, seizes opportunities others only dream about. The carnal man will see only his faults, the faults of others and have faith in his doubts, while the spiritual man will be found looking to the Spirit of God for fresh and creative perspective – his life full of faith and optimism. Such perspective is vital – “in the now” – practical and enduring!

Again it all boils down to your perspective. “So the Spirit took me up, and brought me into the inner court, and behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house.” Isn't it time for the glory of the LORD to fill your house?!

“Thy Word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.” (Psalm 119:105)

“Father, I need a fresh perspective today! I can't see beyond my own abilities and shortcomings. I need Your vantage point, Your perspective, Your plan for my life! Thank You Lord, that the thoughts you have for me are for my good, for a good future and for my blessings and prosperity!” (Jeremiah 29:11).
