Habakkuk 1:5

The LORD replied, “Look at the nations and be amazed! Watch and be astounded at what I do! For I am doing something in your own day, something you wouldn’t believe even if someone told you about it.” Habakkuk 1:5 NLT

Yes, in this passage Habakkuk is warning the people of God of the soon coming Babylonian army that would sweep over the middle eastern world. (Habakkuk 1:6). Habakkuk’s words were not only for the Jewish nation of so long ago. The Lord is using Habakkuk’s words today – if we have ears to hear – that we may see that in this hour of history the LORD Who prepared this “wonder” so long ago is preparing again wonders for today that will amaze the inhabitants of planet earth!

These wonders will happen on two major fronts. There will regional and global wars... “You shall hear of wars and rumors of war... nations shall rise against nation...” (Matthew 24:3 – 8). But another aspect of God’s “doing something in your own day; something you wouldn’t believe even if someone told you about it”, is the final, unparalleled harvest of souls in these last of the Ending Days! We will experience the “season of Aaron’s rod” – the every season of life being manifest over night! The budding, the fragrant blossoming, the luscious growth, the ripened fruit – all in one moment! The harvesters will overtake those planting the seeds – that means that the fruit of the harvest will come faster than you can plant the seeds! Unbelievable? Well, for those who are full of the Word of God and are relying upon the Holy Spirit’s power, you will do and see these “greater works”! (John 14:12).

“Father God, I don’t want to be found in doubt and unbelief in these last days. Today, I set myself to believe with You for the unbelievable – in Jesus’ name!

“...With God all things are possible!” (Matthew 19:26b).
