The Prophetic Books

Habakkuk 2:1

“I will stand upon my watch, and set myself upon the tower, and I will watch to see what He will say to me, and what I will answer when I am corrected.” Habakkuk 2:1

It is of the utmost importance that the Christian be found faithfully performing his duty, even if correction is forthcoming! How much better is it to hear from the Lord, even in rebuke, than to have Him remain silent or worst yet, we remain deaf?

Many people are trapped by fears of failure. These fears then restrain them from ever acting, every doing, ever really living! A person may sit in a car and never go anywhere. Such a “driver” will never be cited with a moving violation but neither will he go anywhere!

So, take up your watch! From such times of prayer act in faith! Far better to act and receive correction than to cower in fear and do nothing! (Matthew 25:14 – 30).

“Father, today in Jesus’ name, I will hearken to the voice of the Spirit and act as He leads me. I would rather be found doing Your will and receiving correction along the way that to held hostage by various fears and shadows! Amen.”
