Volume 3

The Prophetic Books

Habakkuk 2:3 – 4

“For the vision is yet for an appointed time; but at the end it will speak, and it will not lie. Though it tarries; wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry... the righteous will live their lives by their faith.” Habakkuk 2:3 – 4

Develop a patient outlook in life. An enduring preserving determination will overcome! It is the proverbial race of the hare and the turtle. “Cast not away your confidence, which has great recompense of reward. For you have need to patience that, after you have done the will of God, you might receive the promise.” For yet a little while, and He that shall come, will come, and will not tarry. Now the just shall live by faith; but if any man draw back, My soul shall have no pleasure in him.” (Hebrews 11:35 – 38).

Life is full of delays, but the man of faith has seen beyond what the natural eye can see or the pressures of life can exert. It is such vision, and the clarity of it, that fuels the spirit of perseverance.

The further you can “see” by faith, the more determined, the more energetic, the more apt you are to possess the spirit of an overcomer! Jesus is coming back and He is bringing reward for those who have been faithfully about His business.

“Today LORD, with Your help, I set myself to wait and serve faithfully until the vision is accomplished!”
