Isaiah 12:2 – 3

“Behold, God is my salvation. I will trust and will not be afraid; for the Lord even the LORD; is my strength and my song. He also has become my salvation. Therefore, with joy shall you draw water out of the wells of salvation.” Isaiah 12:2 – 3

When the Lord is your salvation a new song is free to arise in your heart. When the Lord is your confidence and your trust, fear itself flees away! When the Lord is your salvation joy is the accompaniment to your day!

It is easy to see, is it not? This salvation that Isaiah is speaking of is not a once a week, “go to church”, only “while I’m at church” kind of salvation. This salvation is for real living. It is for the day in, day out living we face every single day. It is for the days we struggle; it is for the days we celebrate. It is for the days we must fight and it is for the days we enjoy our victories.

God is my salvation, but He is also become my salvation. Coming to Christ is only the beginning. Now He wants to enter into this life wholly and fully. He not only wants to forgive your sin, He wants to enter into life with you on every level. It is from this constant abiding in Him that we learn to draw the joys of His salvation from the well of His life.

“Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ: By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God.” (Romans 5:1 – 2)

Maybe today you are experiencing certain fears or weakness – draw then from His well of salvation! Allow Him today to become your salvation – yes, now, this moment!
