Isaiah 5:1

The Song of the Vineyard.

“Now will I sing to My beloved a song of My beloved touching His vineyard.” Isaiah 5:1

Always wait for the last verse of the song! “For with God nothing shall be impossible.” (Luke 1:37).

This vineyard has given the Vinedresser much grief. He has finally removed His protection and blessing and allowed the vines to be eaten and the vineyard destroyed!

But God...!

But God has a plan! Where man fails God never does! When no man can be found to execute the Eternal’s plan He acts Himself! “For He shall grow up before Him like a tender plant, and like a root out of dry ground.” (Isaiah 53:2). The Lord’s Messiah arises out of the dry ground! Jesus comes to fulfill what others could not do... “And when He saw that there was no man... no intercessor; therefore His arm brought salvation unto Him, and His righteousness sustained Him. (Isaiah 59:16).

A new Vine is growing! Fruitfulness is here! And now rather than the wild grapes that our own roots and hearts produce we may now be grafted into His Root; this Vine that can do nothing else than produce the fruit desired of the Vinedresser! “I am the True Vine... if you abide in Me and My words abide in you, you will ask what you desire, and it shall be done unto you. By this is My Father glorified that you bear much fruit, so you shall be My disciples.” (John 15:1, 7).

“Sing a new song...”
