

Before the THRON The Devotional

Volume 3

The Prophetic Books

Isaiah 5:1 – 2

The Song of the Vineyard.

“Now will I sing to my well Beloved a song of my Beloved touching His vineyard. My well Beloved hath a vineyard in a very fruitful hill: And He fenced it, and gathered out the stones thereof, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in the midst of it, and also made a winepress therein: and He looked that it should bring forth grapes, and it brought forth wild grapes.” Isaiah 5:1 – 2

The LORD is a faith being. He plants a vineyard – only the best of vines in the choicest of locations – and He expects a good harvest – for He has built a tower and a wine press in expectation of the vintage.

By appearances, it looks as though His faith has failed for the new vineyard brings forth only wild grapes; rebellious grapes, sinful grapes, hate filled and disobedient grapes!

Men have been given a free will and with their liberty of choice often choose rebellion rather than obedience. In so doing, they produce and subsequently reap, “wild grapes.”

As with the LORD’s rebellious vineyard, you too may be facing seemingly impossible circumstances when loved ones have lost common sense and turned from their faith in Christ. Disappointments may weigh heavily upon you. You may believe and it may even appear that your time, efforts, love, and money are wasted upon ungrateful and insolent people.

But this is not the end of the song... keep singing in faith. Defeat will only overtake you if you stop singing!
