

“And the eyes of those who see shall not be dim, and ears of those who hear shall hearken, the ear also of the rash shall understand knowledge, and the tongue of the stammer shall be ready to speak plainly.” Isaiah 32:3 – 4

The benefits of being a Christian extend far beyond our names being written in the Book of Life (Dayynoo – “It is Enough”¹). These benefits address not only spiritual needs but reach into the practical areas and necessities of living in the now. “According as His divine purpose has given unto us all things that pertain to life and godliness...” (2 Peter 1:3 – 4).

Be careful! To spiritualize God’s promises, promises that He intended for us to appropriate in our natural day to day living will rob us and rob others of the Lord’s intended blessing. If we insist that the eyes and ears that the prophet is speaking of are only metaphors for our spiritual seeing and hearing, faith will never be allowed to rise for physical healing and in so doing we will bear impotence rather than vital power! How many professing Christians and leaders have robbed and denied Jesus’ ministry of healing because they have spiritualized away His present day ministry of “abundant life”? (John 10:10; Luke 4:18 – 19).

What else have we “spiritualized” away and subsequently lost the blessing of God?

Take Him at His word. Believe His word. It will work today if you dare believe it!

“Jesus Christ the same, yesterday, and today, and forever.” (Hebrews 13:8)

¹ A song of the Passover Seder. “It would have been more than enough had He simply rescued us from slavery. Yes, it would have been enough but He did far more than this. He brought us through the sea to stand upon dry land...”
