

“... the LORD is our judge, the LORD is our lawgiver, the LORD is our King; He will save us.” Isaiah 32:22

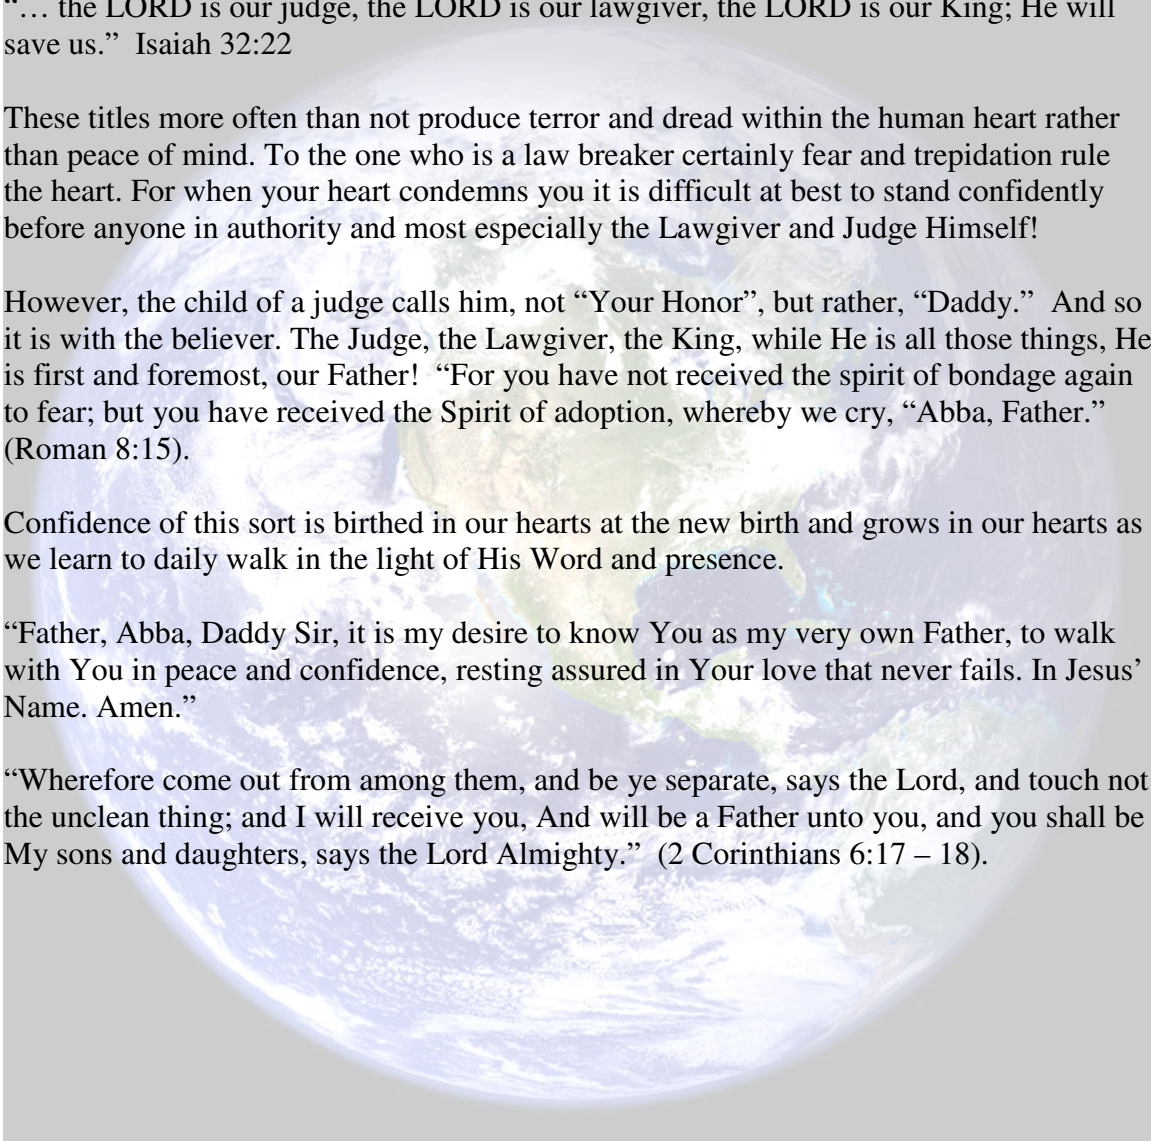

These titles more often than not produce terror and dread within the human heart rather than peace of mind. To the one who is a law breaker certainly fear and trepidation rule the heart. For when your heart condemns you it is difficult at best to stand confidently before anyone in authority and most especially the Lawgiver and Judge Himself!

However, the child of a judge calls him, not “Your Honor”, but rather, “Daddy.” And so it is with the believer. The Judge, the Lawgiver, the King, while He is all those things, He is first and foremost, our Father! “For you have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but you have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, “Abba, Father.” (Roman 8:15).

Confidence of this sort is birthed in our hearts at the new birth and grows in our hearts as we learn to daily walk in the light of His Word and presence.

“Father, Abba, Daddy Sir, it is my desire to know You as my very own Father, to walk with You in peace and confidence, resting assured in Your love that never fails. In Jesus’ Name. Amen.”

“Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, says the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you, And will be a Father unto you, and you shall be My sons and daughters, says the Lord Almighty.” (2 Corinthians 6:17 – 18).
