

“The wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad for them; and the desert shall rejoice, and blossom as the rose... And a highway will be there, a roadway, and it will be called the Highway of Holiness. The unclean will not travel on it, but it will be for him who walks that way, and fools will not wander on it.” Isaiah 35:1, 8

The Kingdom of our God and of His Christ will be marvelous in its scope and wonder. What was once lifeless will dramatically produce a great abundance of life. Running through this now amazing garden will be a Highway of Holiness – so blessed a road that even fools will not lose their way!

But is not this place still future tense in relation to our daily living, or is it? The roads we must navigate today are fraught with dangers and troubles. Yet Jesus has promised us His very presence wherever we go. “Lo, I am with you always...” (Matthew 28:20). He is the Way. (John 14:6). Keeping our eyes fixed upon Him will enable us to safely cross this pilgrim road we travel upon in spite of its dangers. (Hebrew 12:1 – 2)

“Lord Jesus, my imagination can picture that Day when the desert will bloom and the Highway of Holiness will be traversed with great joy! But today I walk this life’s dangerous road by faith. Through Your Word I hold You in clear view – and therefore I will walk into today unafraid because You are my Way!”

“There is a path which no fowl knows, and which the vulture's eye hath not seen: the lion's whelps have not trodden it, nor the fierce lion passed by it.” (Job 28:7 – 8).

“Before the THRONE” and “Before the THRONE – The Devotional” are registered trademarks of and published by Spencers Unleashed, Inc. All rights reserved, contents may be quoted or reprinted, provided excerpts are in context.
© 2005 and © 2006 by Mark D. Spencer and Spencers Unleashed, Inc. For additional information see us at www.spencersunleashed.com or at www.innercourt.com or at www.feargod.com