

“No lion shall be there on the Highway of Holiness, nor any ravenous beasts, but the redeemed shall walk there. And the ransomed of the LORD shall return, and come to Zion with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads; they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.” Isaiah 35:9 – 10

Within our culture we rarely need to worry about lions attacking us as we travel. But they are still there, only now in the form of drunken drivers, demon possessed gang bangers or terrorists.

Nevertheless, we may travel secure for we are the redeemed of the LORD. Our lives are “hidden with Christ in God” (Colossians 3:3), and as such, we may rest secure with a sure confidence in Him, that that which we have entrusted to Him, He will keep against that Day!

Such security rests within the heart that has found its home in Christ and in whose hope is in Christ alone! To so abide in Christ is to find shelter under the shadow of the Almighty and to be hidden securely from the devil who roams about “seeking whom he may devour.” (Psalm 91; 1 Peter 5:8). “There is a path which no fowl knows, and which the vulture’s eye has not seen. The lion’s whelps have not trodden it, nor the fierce lion passed by it.” (Job 28:7 – 8).

“Son, hide yourself and your family in Jesus. Allow Him to be your security, your joy, and your confidence!”
