

“Then Hezekiah turned his face to the wall, and prayed to the LORD.” Isaiah 38:2

The verdict is in! The judgment of the Lord has been issued. Hezekiah’s fate is sealed... or is it? Can a man’s fate be altered? Can he change the mind of God?

Personal prophecy is not the same as the prophetic voice of God’s Word. There are variables that can alter our outcome and choices made that will modify our destiny. The Word of the Lord spoken to Isaiah concerning Hezekiah was correct. Hezekiah was to die. Many Christians today would have accepted the prophet’s word – or the doctor’s word – or their denomination’s opinion. But not Hezekiah!

Prayer – by God’s own design – changes things! Prayer brings the God of the Possible into situations that before were humanly impossible! “And the Lord said, "If you had faith like a mustard seed, you would say to this mulberry tree, ‘Be uprooted and be planted in the sea’; and it would obey you.” (Luke 17:6). Prayer removes obstacles to our blessing and success. Prayer delivers from the lion’s den, the hard hand of the taskmasters, incurable sicknesses and even the grasp of dire poverty!

Isn’t it time that you, like Hezekiah, turned your face to the wall and prayed?

“Grace me Lord GOD to face my circumstances and possess the determination to pray those prayers that will then bring change to the present circumstances I face. In Jesus’ name, amen!”

“For with God nothing shall be impossible.” (Luke 1:37).

“Before the THRONE” and “Before the THRONE – The Devotional” are registered trademarks of and published by Spencers Unleashed, Inc. All rights reserved, contents may be quoted or reprinted, provided excerpts are in context.

© 2005 and © 2006 by Mark D. Spencer and Spencers Unleashed, Inc. For additional information see us at www.spencersunleashed.com or at www.innercourt.com or at www.feargod.com