

“Have you not known? Have you not heard? That the everlasting God, the LORD, the Creator of the ends of the earth, faints not, and neither does He grow weary? There is no searching of His understanding.” Isaiah 40:28.

As the revelation of this verse dawns within your heart, faith will leap! What can tire Him? Who can tax His strength and abilities? Don't you know? There is none capable of plumbing the depths of His understanding!

Who is faint among you? Who is tired and weak? Who has come to the end of their own resources? To the faint He gives power and to those without might He increases their strength!

“Son, if you readily acknowledge your weakness He will be your supply. When you've come to the end of your rope He will be waiting!”

“They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run and not be weary; and they shall walk and not faint. (Isaiah 40:31). To renew our strength literally means to exchange strength. Now we see it! “I can do all things through Christ Who strengthens me!” (Philippians 4:13). When I come to Him in my weakness, He receives my weakness and exchanges that weakness for His strength! Now, we too, may run and not grow weary. Now, we too, may mount up on the wings of eagles!

Confess your weakness quickly and allow Him to make the exchange!

“Before the THRONE” and “Before the THRONE – The Devotional” are registered trademarks of and published by Spencers Unleashed, Inc. All rights reserved, contents may be quoted or reprinted, provided excerpts are in context.

© 2005 and © 2006 by Mark D. Spencer and Spencers Unleashed, Inc. For additional information see us at www.spencersunleashed.com or at www.innercourt.com or at www.feargod.com