

“I am the LORD; that is My name; and My glory will I not give to another, neither My praise to carved images!” Isaiah 42:8

When men rob God’s glory by exalting that which is no god to a place of honour and worship that rightfully belongs to God alone; not only do we insult God and violate all spiritual truths, but we lower our own unique place and calling within creation. (Revelation 4:11).

“Behold, the former things are come to pass, and new things do I declare; before they spring forth I tell you of them.” (Isaiah 42:9).

The Holy Spirit is at work! He reveals, He helps, He ever calls us onward in Christ! If we will listen, He will speak. If we set our hearts to obey, He will act.

“Sing to the LORD a new song, and His praise from the end of the earth.” (Isaiah 42:10)

It is far too easy to sing the same tune over and over until it becomes dry and lifeless. To remain constantly hungry for the Kingdom of God and His righteousness, while a challenge, will assure you of fresh manna and a fresh spring of life – day after day, year after year.

“Today, I set myself to honour God in all that I do. I will not knowingly give to another the glory due to my God – the Lord of Glory! Lord, today fill my heart with a new song – even praise to Your name!”

“Before the THRONE” and “Before the THRONE – The Devotional” are registered trademarks of and published by Spencers Unleashed, Inc. All rights reserved, contents may be quoted or reprinted, provided excerpts are in context.
© 2005 and © 2006 by Mark D. Spencer and Spencers Unleashed, Inc. For additional information see us at www.spencersunleashed.com or at www.innercourt.com or at www.feargod.com