

“Remember the former things long past, For I am God, and there is no other; I am God, and there is no one like Me, declaring the end and the results from the beginning and from ancient times things which have not been done, Saying, ‘My purpose will be established, and I will accomplish all My good pleasure...’” Isaiah 46:9 – 10 NASB

An earmark or a true sign of divine prerogative is this very thing – telling the end of a matter from the beginning! Neither is this some paltry sixth sense, some soulish telekinesis that somehow foresees future events vaguely! No! The Lord says with supreme confidence, “Truly I have spoken; truly I will bring it to pass. I have planned it, surely I will do it.” (Isaiah 46:11).

Men may offer boasts of their ability to perform politically or financially (two among many areas of vain boast) but Jesus said men don’t even have the power to change the color of their hair – and what was that boast of the future again? (Matthew 5:36)

Let us agree quickly with Isaiah. “He alone is God – there is no other.”

“Lord Jesus, teach me to walk in humility before You. May my boast be only of You and not the vain boasting of my own arrogance!” Selah!
