

“The Lord GOD hath given me the tongue of the learned, that I should know how to speak a word in season to him that is weary: He wakens me morning by morning, He wakens my ear to hear as the learned. The Lord GOD hath opened my ear, and I was not rebellious, neither did I turn back.” Isaiah 50:4 – 5

Jesus Christ is the perfect Disciple. “Though He was a son, yet He learned obedience by the things He suffered.” (Hebrews 5:8). Contrary to our selfish attitudes and stubborn insistence on having our own way, seeking our own pleasure and demanding our own will be done; Jesus lived life in constant submission and yieldedness to the Father’s purpose and plan. “My food is to do the will of Him Who sent Me and to finish His work.” (John 4:34)

A disciple is not merely a “hearer” but a doer of the words heard. How often do we really hear what the Spirit of the Father is saying? After all, we allow preconceived ideologies and misguided notions to dull our spiritual hearing. We further allow fears to drown out the voice of God. “Today, if you hear His voice, harden not your heart...” (Hebrews 3:15).

“Father, today in Jesus’ name, I choose to not be rebellious nor will I turn back in fear. Thank You Lord for awakening my ear to hear Your voice.”

“Today, I boldly proclaim, “My food, my passion, is to do the will of the Father!”

“My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me.” (John 10:27).
