

“For thus says the High and Lofty One Who inhabits eternity, whose name is Holy – I dwell in the high and holy place with him who has a contrite and humble spirit.” Isaiah 57:15

The way up is down! To walk with the High and Lofty One is to choose the lowly path of humility and contriteness.

Never confuse humility of heart with humiliation. The latter comes upon us when we have exalted ourselves beyond rightful measure and we find ourselves face down in the mud of life embarrassed and ashamed before other people. Humility is never like this, but rather it flows from an inner character and choice that has decided for and is at peace with the back seat, the end of the line, the award going to another, another’s ministry bearing fruit. True humility knows and is confident in God’s seeing of the true situation and can rest in confidence knowing He is able to promote.

Who have you been walking with lately; pride and self assurance? Or has your humility of heart attracted the company of the High and Lofty One?

“My son, maybe today would be a good day to choose wisely and to walk humbly with your God?!” (Micah 6:8)
