

“Justice is turned away backward, and righteousness stands afar off; for truth is fallen in the street, and equity cannot enter. Yes, truth fails, and he that departs from evil makes himself a prey. And the LORD saw it, and it displeased Him that there was no justice.”
Isaiah 59:14 – 15

Once again, it is as if Isaiah has been reading our newspapers, watching our six o'clock television news programs or reading the daily news blogs. The righteous man will observe the workings of darkness and both grieve and wonder. Grieve that truth is so easily compromised and wonder that falsehoods are so readily consumed – and in the midst of this conundrum, cry out, “God don't You see this?! Won't You act to set it straight?! How long O LORD must we wait for Your righteous reign?!”

“But son, He does see! ...and He will act. Your responsibility at this time is to salt the earth and to be a light in the midst of its ever deepening darkness. Therefore, walk in His ways, pray for His Kingdom's coming, witness to His Gospel of grace, love even your enemies and wait – wait for His soon appearance! Jesus will not allow the righteous to be ashamed nor will He allow us to be disappointed.”

“Live by your faith!”

“And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to His purpose.” (Romans 8:28).

“Before the THRONE” and “Before the THRONE – The Devotional” are registered trademarks of and published by Spencers Unleashed, Inc. All rights reserved, contents may be quoted or reprinted, provided excerpts are in context.

© 2005 and © 2006 by Mark D. Spencer and Spencers Unleashed, Inc. For additional information see us at www.spencersunleashed.com or at www.innercourt.com or at www.feargod.com