

“For Zion’s sake will I not hold My peace, and for Jerusalem’s sake I will not rest, until her righteousness goes forth as brightness, and her salvation as a lamp that burns.” Isaiah 62:1

There is a Divine unrest – a most certain determination in the Divine thought and mind, that His purposes for Zion will be fully and finally realized! Of course, there was never any heavenly anxiety or momentary concern as to the final outcome pertaining to the people of God, but here we are once again allowed to see into the heart of God. And it is here – from this insider’s perspective – we are encouraged for our own positions and promises in God – to know the resolute determination of the Lord to fulfill what He has pledged.

Think not for a moment, that while the Lord is busy with the whole, He has a no lessened resolute determination to accomplish His heart’s desire for your life! “Being confident of this very thing, that He who has begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ.” (Philippians 1:6).

The Lord Jesus will not rest until you are safe and secure in the Father’s presence, radiating His likeness! (Romans 8:29; Jude 24). It is for this purpose that He lives – to make intercession for the saints. (Hebrews 7:25).

“Lord Jesus, thanks!”

“Before the THRONE” and “Before the THRONE – The Devotional” are registered trademarks of and published by Spencers Unleashed, Inc. All rights reserved, contents may be quoted or reprinted, provided excerpts are in context.

© 2005 and © 2006 by Mark D. Spencer and Spencers Unleashed, Inc. For additional information see us at www.spencersunleashed.com or at www.innercourt.com or at www.feargod.com