

“For a day of vengeance is in My heart, and the year of My redeemed is come.” Isaiah 63:4

The Day is approaching. It will not delay. It will arrive at the appointed time. It is closer than when it was first told us! Jesus said that, “of that day and hour, no man knows, neither the angels in heaven, but My Father only.” (Matthew 24:36).

The Day of vengeance is not for our knowing. “When they were together, they asked of Him, saying, “Lord, will You at this time restore again the Kingdom to Israel?” And He said to them, “It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father has put in His own power.” (Acts 1:6 – 7).

This certain uncertainty – the expectation of His return yet the obscurity of the exact moment requires vigilance and faithfulness. “But know this that if the householder had known in what time the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have allowed his house to be broken into. Therefore be ready; for in such an hour as you think not, the Son of Man comes.” (Matthew 24:43 – 33).

Did you notice? With every warning in Scriptures we also may see the goodness of God’s character toward those who have believed. Yes, there is coming a day of His vengeance! But watch this dear saint, there is also coming a year of blessing for His redeemed! A day of judgment and a year of blessing! “For a day of vengeance is in My heart, and the year of My redeemed is come.” Isaiah 63:4
