Isaiah 55:6

“Seek the LORD while He may be found, call upon Him while He is near.” Isaiah 55:6

Is there coming a time when the Lord may not be found? Is He away from His place of business? Is He going to sleep or is He on vacation? We laugh at such thoughts, don't we? You see, this is not about the Lord's whereabouts or His readiness to receive the repentant soul back to Himself. Rather, it is about the mortality of this life and our preparedness to enter the next one!

As we pass through one season to another, certain preparations must be made spiritually. Unless we make the proper adjustments with our lives, we run the risk of allowing hardness of heart to cut us off from the goodness of God.

Obey the Spirit's promptings immediately! Yield to His urgings quickly. There is no guarantee He will call again; no promise He may return for a second invitation. “For He says, “I have heard you in the times accepted, and in the day of salvation have I helped you, behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation. “ (2 Corinthians 6:2).

“He has given you, my son, this fresh opportunity to remind you of your need to seek Him. Don't squander the opportunity.”
