

“Thus says the LORD; “Keep justice, and do righteousness. For My salvation is about to come, and My righteousness to be revealed. Blessed is the man who does this, and the son of man who lays hold on it.” Isaiah 56:1 – 2a

For those who keep justice and do righteousness here is the Lord’s promise. “My salvation is about to come and I am about to reveal My righteousness.” We must understand that keeping ourselves from sin will bring reward. But is there not an even greater fulfillment of this promise? To those who have seen with their spiritual eyes, God has already sent His Salvation and revealed His Righteousness! Jesus Christ is the fulfillment of all God’s promises – in Him is all righteousness culminated and in Him is all salvation procured! Apart from Jesus there is no salvation, neither is there any righteousness apart from His. Jesus is our only hope of redemption and in Him lays our only righteousness! (Acts 4:10 – 12).

Some may believe – and falsely so – that such salvation is given by God without a corresponding action on their part. While freely given by God and His grace, it must be possessed by men. To lay hold of His gifts is the exercise of faith, and to such a person will God reveal His salvation and His righteousness.

Do you own a scripture on healing? Then possess the promise and act your faith! Do you possess a verse concerning your prosperity? Then seize the blessing and walk in abundance! Do you hold a promise of His peace? Then drive out all fears in Jesus’ name!

“My son, lay hold to all God’s glorious promises in Christ! Don’t allow even one promise offered you go unappropriated!”

It is possible!
