

“Then the Word of the LORD came to me, saying, “Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you; and before you came out of the womb, I sanctified you, and ordained you a prophet to the nations.” Jeremiah 1:4 – 5

Your life, my son, is not a curious chance of nature’s whim. You are “fearfully and wonderfully made!” (Psalm 139:14) Fashioned by a loving Creator to be a unique individual, destined to fulfill a divine purpose and plan, yes, you are fearfully and wonderfully made!

Say this out loud – “God has a purpose for my life. I am an individual of destiny. I am who I am because my Heavenly Father created me and fashioned me for specific works of righteousness. With His help, and in Jesus’ name, I will fulfill and accomplish all His good will for my life in this earth!”

Son, never put yourself down. O yes, be honest with yourself and with God about your faults and failings and sins, but never question that you were created with a good plan in mind. “For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God has before ordained that we should walk in them.” (Ephesians 2:10). You will avoid many personal struggles when you settle once and for all the issue of who you are in God. As they say, “be comfortable in your own skin” because you have been “fearfully and wonderfully made!”

“I am no longer a slave, but a son, and if a son, then an heir through God!” Galatians 4:7
