

“For the shepherds have become dull-hearted and have not sought the LORD; therefore they have not prospered, and all their flock is scattered.” Jeremiah 10:21

A dull-hearted person does not seek the Lord. When we cease to seek the Lord, prosperity is elusive, and then what prosperity is possessed, is easily scattered.

“Seek first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness and all these things will be added unto you.” (Matthew 6:33).

Prosperity is directly linked to the health and vitality of our walk with Jesus. “Beloved, I wish above all things you might prosper and be in health even as your soul prospers.” (3 John 2).

The dull of heart forget the Lord and His blessings upon their lives. The dull of heart forget to be thankful. The dull of heart soon chase after idle promises of charlatans and hucksters who prey upon such foolish people.

“Lord, awaken our hearts that we might not fall into the realm of the dull of heart. Please forgive me for any dullness of heart that I am not aware of in my life. Quicken me by Your Word and Your Spirit to know You and to walk with You! In Jesus’ Name, Amen!”

“Before the THRONE” and “Before the THRONE – The Devotional” are registered trademarks of and published by Spencers Unleashed, Inc. All rights reserved, contents may be quoted or reprinted, provided excerpts are in context.

© 2005 and © 2006 by Mark D. Spencer and Spencers Unleashed, Inc. For additional information see us at www.spencersunleashed.com or at www.innercourt.com or at www.feargod.com