

“If you have run with the footmen, and they have wearied you, then how can you contend with horses? And if in the land of peace, in which you trusted, they wearied you, then how will you do in the flood plains of the Jordan?” Jeremiah 12:5

If we have grown weary in our service to the Lord in a time of plenty and of prosperity – what will become of us in the evil day? If we have not taken our spiritual and moral stand before the evil day comes how can we resist or be found as overcomers when it does come?

“Wherefore, take unto you the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.” (Ephesians 6:13).

Unless we remain “faithful in the little” we run the risk of collapse and failure when faced with serious temptations or crisis. Too often people live however they want under the false belief that somehow they will be spiritual, moral and righteous when it is needed. It will never happen! “Be not deceived, God is not mocked, for whatever a man sows, that shall he also reap.” (Galatians 6:7). And never forget this... “Let us not be weary in well doing; for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.” (Galatians 6:9).

Whatever the footman you are running against today – remain faithful. Remain faithful to Jesus and to His Word. Then... should you be challenged by the horses and their riders, you will be ready, clothed in His armor of light and well enabled to stand in victory ! Amen!

“...I have written unto you, young men, because you are strong, and the Word of God abides in you, and you have overcome the wicked one.” (1 John 2:14b).
