

“For thus says the LORD, “After seventy years are accomplished at Babylon, I will visit you, and perform My good Word toward you, in causing you to return even to this place, Jerusalem.” Jeremiah 29:10

We are bound and restricted by time. We can neither hide from it nor can we escape it. Time’s march is relentless; forcing all living things to step to its beat. But even time has its Master! The I AM that I AM, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the Ending, the One Who was and is and is to come – the Ancient of Days, He is the Master of time! Alleluia! This Master of Time knows the moment of your captivity’s accomplishment or completion, even before it began!

To believe that Life is a pre-ordained set of circumstances that must be traversed is surely a faulty perspective. Men have choices and those choices enable them to either partner with God or resist His “good Word toward” them! It may be difficult to hear, but our choices will often expedite or prolong those periods of captivity!

What choices are you making today? Will they extend your days of trial or will those choices you make today bring the Lord’s good word toward you that much quicker? The life of faith enables us to reach into the “now” of God’s realm and pull from that eternal realm the provisions and answers we need for this life bound by time! “Now faith is!” (Hebrews 11:1). “While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.” (2 Corinthians 4:18).

Choose to believe God’s Word!

“Eternal One, help me to make the right choices to the end that Your good Word toward me might be accomplished in Your time. As Your Word comes into my heart and mind faith will come enabling me to walk in the Eternal’s realm! Help me that I not prolong or delay Your good promises through unbelief or disobedience! In Jesus’ name! Amen!”
